Dear Sir/Madam

Re-Issuing of Compliance Certificate

I have pleasure in advising that, following a mandatory inspection of your company, it was again found to be compliant and under the circumstances, I am enclosing a fresh Certificate of Compliance. You are kindly reminded that Compliance Certificates are only re-issued subject to the following conditions:

- That your company remains compliant with all provisions of the Council's Collective Agreements for at least the next twelve months (certificates are only valid for a period of 12 months); and
- *That the certificate is in respect of goods manufactured by the address mentioned on the certificate.
- That the certificate will not be utilised for purposes of importing manufactured garments or any garment manufacturing work sub-contracted to another manufacturer.

You are also reminded that in the event of your establishment defaulting on one or more provisions of the applicable Council Collective Agreement, or it becoming known to the Council that the conditions contained herein are not being adhered to, the Council reserves the right to withdraw the certificate and your company's name from its website with immediate effect.

It is the policy of the Council to automatically issue compliance certificates to all establishments in the Industry which are fully compliant with the provisions of the Council's Collective Agreements i.e. without the need for the submission of a written application and you are aware that the names of those companies to whom certificates have been issued are placed on the Council's website (www.nbc.org.za) for reference to by retailers as well as the procurement officers of government and local government departments.

I thank you for complying with the provisions of the Council's Collective Agreements and look forward to a continuing good working relationship.

Yours sincerely

S NDUNA
